

Procedures for Collecting Outcome Data for Continuous Improvement

Resilience Health will continually collect data on the following:

- Number of patients who stay in the entire 2-year program
- Number of patients who leave the program before 2 years
- Patient employment history
- Global Assessment of Functioning
- Patient's family functioning
- Patient's social functioning

Resilience Health will also follow up closely, three years after the patient is done with the 2-year program.